3 DEADLOCK SENATE BALLOT

Brookhart, Frazier, Shipstead, Johnson Go to Smith

CUMMINS, SMITH TIE

Norris, Howell and Ladd Stick to La Follette

By United Press

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Four of the seven La Follette progressives who have deadlocked the senate over the chairmanship of the interstate commerce committee, swung over to the democrats on the first ballot today but could not break the deadlock.

Senators Brookhart, Frazier, Shipstead and Magnus Johnson voted for Senator Smith, democratic candidate.

Cummins blocked

The other three stuck to La Follette, preventing election of either Smith or Cummins, the regular republican nominee.

Senators Norris, Nebraska; Howell, Nebraska; and Ladd of North Dakota, stood by La Follette.

The vote on the first ballot—the seventh since the fight began on Monday—was 40-40.

Cummins, 40; Smith, 40; La Follette, 3. With 63 votes cast 42 was necessary for election.

North Group Reels

The Brookhart group, thinking Smith was more in favor of their progressive rail program, reached an agreement to swing over, but the Norris group refused to go with them.

The democrats swung right into line behind Smith and the republicans behind Cummins.

Senator Ladd swung over to Smith on the next ball but this new progressive vote for the democratic left Smith just one vote short of the number needed.

Norris and Howell hang together for La Follette.

The total of eighth ballot: Cummins, 38; Smith, 41; La Follette, 2.

Senate Adjourns

With Norris and Howell, the Nebraska progressives holding the balance of power, Senator Ladd, republican leader, put the senate into executive session after the third ballot.

The vote: Smith, 41; Cummins, 40; La Follette, 2; needed to elect 42.

Members will remain as they are until Monday.

Ferris, Texas, Officials Work on Case

CLAIM MOTIVE FOUND

Watchman Shot in Mayor's Office, Claim

By United Press

DALLAS, Texas, Dec. 12.—That William Horn, night watchman at Ferris, Texas, slain last Saturday morning, was the victim of a murder plot and not of bank robbers, was the belief of detectives here today following an investigation of the case.

Two Men Held

Two men are being held for investigation—one in Dallas and the other in Waukegan, Ill. Charges may be filed against one of the men today, it was indicated.

Detectives who investigated the killing declared they had evidence tending to show that Horn was shot and killed as he sat in the mayor's office, his slightly headstrong, peevish manner by some person who had a grudge against the night watchman.

Major Frederick McLaughlin, wealthy Chicago society man, coffee merchant and sportsman, has become a close friend of Horn's.

The wedding was solemnized in Chicago. The mayor, as his title implies, has been a soldier too. Just like Vernon Castle and Robert Treman, the dancer's former sponsor.

Major Frederick McLaughlin, wealthy Chicago society man, coffee merchant and sportsman, has become a close friend of Horn's.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

"There was a tree that grew, dear,
To quite a wondrous size."

THE next riddle that the Riddle Lady asked was a long one. I'm sure you never, never can guess what it was.

"There was a tree that grew, dear,
Its branches spread quite wide below.
But narrowed toward the skies.
And on the tippiest twig of it
There gleamed a gorgeous star
That surely must have fallen from
The dark blue sky afar.

"And near the fiercest lion
A velvet puppy sat.
While out upon the briny deep
A turtle chased a rat.

"And overhead what marvels
Were waiting to be told:
The tree bore silver sugar-plums
And fruit of shining gold.

And tops grew there thickly,
From dolls to jumping jacks,
And soldier suits and angels
That ran on shiny tracks.

"A trumpet grew on one branch,
A drum hung just below.
And underneath, a shiny sled
Made tracks on cotton snow.

"This tree blooms just in winter,
For one short single stay.
I wish that we could find the seed
And here one crècy day."

"We know! We know!" shouted all the Little Land people. "It is a Christmas tree!"

"Well, well, well," laughed the Riddle Lady, "I supposed someone would guess it, but I didn't know that a riddle would be so smart. The answer that everybody in Little-Land will have to have a prize."

"Nancy and Nick, will you please do an errand for me in your road shoes?" Go and ask Johnny Jim to bring me a grab-bag of what-nots."

"Certainly," said the Twins, obediently, and away they went, and in truth they came back with the whatnot bag.

Everybody dropped in and got present and it was nearly as good as Christmas. At least, that's what contrary Mary said, for she got woolly lamb.

CHILD'S STORY OF THE HUMAN RACE

By Uncle Ray

CHAPTER 57.

The Horse Gets a Ride.

By the time men who the Stone Age became acquainted with the horse, it had lost its extra toes and had outtord hoofs.

For a hundred thousand years or more, men never had any friends of making friends with the horse. They thought of it only as a wild creature whose flesh tasted good when roasted over the fire. Tens of thousands of wild horses were slain with spears and arrows. Great herds of bones remaining from Stone Age feasts prove that horse meat was greatly enjoyed.

Paintings and engravings of horses were often made by cave artists. In one of these pictures the horse seems to have a halter about its head. This is taken to prove that the animal had been tamed by the time the picture was made.

There are also other reasons to believe the horse had been tamed—by some tribes, at least—late in the Stone Age.

Can you imagine yourself far back in the history of the human race—back to the time when the taming was first done?

Let us suppose that a man said to himself:

"How awfully that horse can run! I wish I could go that fast!"

One summer day he happened to be lying lazily in the shade of a tree, thinking about the fun it would be to ride around as quickly as a horse. Suddenly he looked up and saw a young horse grazing only a few feet away.

A queer idea struck him. "I'll get on its back!" he decided. The horse did not notice the man who came, it kept on eating grass and looking at the man and jumped on it animal's back.

Then came such a sight as we see at Wild West shows. The horse jumped and kicked and reared and snorted. It was young but it was strong. The man was also young and strong. He held the mane with one hand. With the other he grasped the horse's neck, and as the horse began to reeve, and finally got struggling. The man gave it a whack with his open palm, and off it galloped across the plain.

The man had not a horse, and it was a long time before he found a horse.

NEXT: How the horse was tamed.

SCHOOL HOUSE BURNS, BUT CHILDREN ESCAPE

PARIS, Texas, Dec. 12.—The school building at Hoover, 4 1/2 miles west of Blossburg, which was destroyed by fire yesterday, was estimated at $25,000.

The building was a new one, having been constructed during the summer months, and was an up-to-date rural school building.

The trustees had just insured the building for $12,000 about a week before the fire, this amount being about sufficient to pay for the future.

V. of A. Reports on Aid For Port Arthur Needy

Assistance rendered the needy in Port Arthur during the past week by the Volunteers of America organization is set forth in a report issued today by Captain C. N. Miller, in charge of the organization's Helping Hand Mission, 325 Port Worth avenue.

Ten meals were served by the mission workers to men and women, 14 beds provided and one woman supplied with a ticket to visit her sick mother, Captain Miller reported.

Saturday night a family of nine arrived in Port Arthur without money food and clothing, having come all the way from an eastern state when they heard word was plentiful in Port Arthur. Captain Miller said, food and clothing were given the members of the family, raising in age from a baby two years old on up to the mother and father. A friend of the family was located in Beaumont and they were sent there, the captain said.

New Youth

For women—now beauty for girls

By Miss Wallace Hopper

I found in France, many years ago, the supreme secret to beauty, and I brought it into this country. I was a plain girl, and they made me the rage of New York. And, after 40 years, in the twentieth century, they look on a beauty still. All who meet me, on the street or elsewhere marvel at my youthful bloom.

I have brought the same results to many. So I know these same helps can bring millions unadorned beauty and youthful youth. Now I have arranged to sell you with me, and then, and I am taking time to tell the facts about them.

My White Youth Clay

This is a white, refined clay, amazing and delightful in results. It has been perfected by 20 years of scientific study.

Many of you know what clay does. Even the Greek and sandy clays on which the great cities were built. They make the skin of all hair, and more it. They make a face, complexion, body, clear and clean. They lift the skin, combat all those bad qualities, make the pores. You can even rub the youth and beauty that results from clay.

But my White Clay Youth is vastly more efficient. It is the best word in facial clay. My women, with one application, seem to drop the years. The cost is 5 cents and $1.

My Youth Cream

My odd cream was perfected by French experts. I call it my Youth Cream. It cleanses, tones, blanches and whorries. And, off the face that science knows to foster the fine texture of the skin.

I use it after the clay. Also as a night cream. Also destined as a poor man's base. Never is my skin without it.

It softens, whitens, feeds and soothes. My Youth Cream costs 60 cents.

I clean my skin with a liquid cleanser, called my Facial Youth. That also is a French creation. The leading beauty experts now employ it, but they charge too high a price.

My Facial Youth contains no animal, no vegetable fat. The skin cannot absorb it. So it cleans to the depths, then departs. All the refuse comes out with it, all the dirt and grime. You will never know what a clean skin means until you try Facial Youth. The cost is 75 cents.

My Hair Youth

This is another French creation. It embodies all that aids hair health and growth. My hair is my greatest glory. It is heavy, thick and lustrous. I have never had falling hair or dandruff, never a touch of gray.

I apply Hair Youth with an eye dropper, directly to the scalp. It removes the hardened oil and dandruff which stifle the hair roots. It stimulates and fortifies. All in one minute daily, without missing the hair.

My hair shows what Hair Youth does. I would not for a fortune go without it. It comes to you at little cost—50 cents and $1 with eye dropper.

All druggists and toilet counters now supply these very helps I use. They offer each under guarantee. I urge all girls and women to learn how much they mean. No other methods that I know can bring so much of added beauty or continued youth. Miss Wallace Hopper, business address, Waukegan, Wis.

Port Arthur Basketball Clubs Meet Friday Night to Organize 1923 League of Cagers

Athletic Card of Thrills Awaits Ring Fans Tonight at Elks

Stage Set for Fast Mat Battle Between Heavyweight Artists

George Actor Promises Fandom Best He Can Produce; Clarence Ecklund Well Trained; Program Acclaimed Snappiest Bill of Year

By BILL ARCHER

TRAINED to the finest points of the game and fully conditioned, Clarence Ecklund of Buffalo, Wyo., arrived here today to defend the honor of his light-heavyweight wrestling title against George Vassel Actor, "the pride of Port Arthur," in a finish match. The curtain will ring up with a bang at 8 o'clock promptly; the scene is neatly laid in Elks Theater. The light-heavyweight title is not at stake, but to Clarence Ecklund, no greater humiliation to his crown can come than defeat at the hands of Actor.

And tonight, that humiliation may come. For weeks Actor, taking this bout perhaps even more seriously than he took his exhibition match with Stanislaus Zbyszko, former world heavyweight champion, in the same ring over a year ago when the Port Arthur prodigy went an hour and 35 minutes with the titleholder, the local aspirant has primed himself to ably defend his own reputation.

Those who have watched Actor grind steady in the Eureka Athletic Club rooms for weeks stand sponsors for the statement that the "Swiftest Greb" in the south has trained harder for Zbyszko, than he conditioned for Ecklund. Two hours every day since Will Fort, local promoter, read "Cy" Mitchell's thousand dollar challenge at the Elks ringside, have been occupied by the local grappler to fit him for what he considers a grueling contest tonight.

Yesterday he loosened up on the tension he has apparently been under, and last night as he reviewed his possibilities with friends in his room Actor gave out the following statement:

"Clarence Ecklund is a tough bar. He knows the game and all its tricks. But I promise the people of Port Arthur that I am going on the mat determined to put everything I know in the scrap. Yes, I feel confident of my ability, but I realize it is going to be a tough match."

From the promoter, Will Fort, comes this assertion:

"Ecklund is all speed and strength. He fights every minute of the game. If he loses, of course, the defeat will be a mark against his good record and against the title he holds. But if he wins, he will be conquering what I consider one of the toughest, headiest Grebs we have ever dealt with. There isn't any doubt that it will be a fight to the finish."

Like an ominous foreboding of Ecklund's determination to vanquish George Actor in short order, no statement came from the champion's quarters.

Several fast preliminaries have been arranged for the card, included in which will probably be one or two local bouts considered by the wrestling area who have visited Port Arthur as coming exponents of the game.

Seat sales indicated this morning that the house would be packed tonight. Fort, who returned here this morning from Beaumont, where he is promoting a match Friday night at Kyle theater, inspected the theatre and announced that the ring-side seats are completed. The seats are erected alongside of the mats, and are six tiers high, capable of seating some 400 fans.

While there will be a few ring-side positions probably for sale tonight at the Elks theatre box office, seat sales for the most part tonight will be general admission, fans being permitted to sit anywhere in the building except in the boxes and on the stage, unless they held ring-side seats.

Ecklund, fresh from a tour of the Pacific coast, Nebraska, Illinois, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas, is the first champion to be brought to Port Arthur since the advent of Stan Zbyszko here. He is a veritable ring flash. Actor, recognized by the sporting fraternity as one of the best men in his class, repeated challenger of champions, is fit. The battle should be the best of the season.

Praises Grange

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—"Speed, sense and strength—that's Grange," says Major John L. Griffith, Big Ten athletic commissioner.

"In these days of the triple threat, that's the offering of the University of Illinois sophomore halfback who has proved in this year of his varsity debut the most dangerous player wearing the orange and blue in years, whether for open field running, line backs, inside tackle or catching forward passes. As to the passes, it matters not whether they were tossed to him or the other team."

"Red" Grange has been a workman in every game and he delivers just the same," says Major Griffith.

Proves His Class

J. Vane Booth of Johns Hopkins University, who recently won the annual intercollegiate cross-country run from a field comprising 300 starters, proved conclusively that he is the class of the east in this event.

ZEV MAY MEET FRENCH HORSE

Owner of Epinard Talks With Harry Sinclair

By United News. NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Zev and Epinard, 10-year-old champions of the American turf and the Continental courses, respectively, probably will meet in 1924 in a deferred settlement of the dispute that arose early this fall.

Pierre Wertheimer of France, owner of Epinard, and Harry Sinclair, who owned Zev, conferred Tuesday afternoon regarding one or more races, August Belmont, president of the Jockey club, controlling American racing was present. It is believed that the Jockey club still prefers to have nothing to do with the arrangements. There is no action on the part of the Jockey club to "knock" any special races that Sinclair and Wertheimer may arrange.

Wertheimer said he found Sinclair willing to let his horse go and was confident that there would be a match race next summer or early in the autumn. However, they did not agree on the place or distance.

Gay Played Well

One of the players largely responsible for the comeback Minnesota staged on the gridiron is Cliff Gray, versatile left guard. Coach Spaulding regards him as one of the best forwards in the west.

Rockne's Capable Leader Once Passed Up By Head Of Famous Irish Eleven

By BILLY EVANS

By United News. NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—The credit of the great teams even Notre Dame. Had it not been for Nebraska, the Notre Dame team of 1923 would have been a team of all time.

In the opinion of a rather interesting fact that Coach Rockne told Brown when he reported for football practice that he didn't think he could use him.

Brown is a local boy at South High in Youngstown who was in the backfield. Coach Asbaugh, former Brown University coach, used Brown either at halfback or fullback. When Brown reported to Rockne, the Notre Dame coach had a world of backfield material, but was short of forwards.

"Where do you play?" is said to have been Rockne's greeting to Brown. "I am a fullback or halfback," replied Brown.

"Don't these come other place you would like to try for?" asked Rockne. "I have always played in the backfield," answered Brown.

"Then I don't think I can use you," said Rockne, as he began to question another aspiring and ambitious candidate.

Brown naturally was crestfallen. That evening he confided his case to one of the older players who had serried under Rockne a couple of years.

"I don't mind that rebuff," said the veteran. "Just report again tomorrow afternoon and tell the coach that you want to play football and you are not a candidate where you play."

When Brown again reported Rockne remembered him and as if he hadn't been told that he wasn't wanted.

"You told me there wasn't much of a chance in the backfield," said Brown. "After I told you that I had always played either halfback or fullback. Today I'm just a foot all players anxious to play, and willing to take a whirl at any position you might care to use me."

That was the secret that Rockne's rebuff would bring out in Brown. Rockne knew all about his ability but wanted to make him over into a forward. He has been a mainstay in the Notre Dame line for years.

Like Britton, Todd has no punch in either hand, but he resembles the retired watermelon chucker in the use of his glove tips to deflect a blow or to stop one before it starts by a slight poke in the muscles of the upper arm. Longman did not bend one left square to the face or chin in 10 rounds.

Todd differs from Britton, however, in the manner of putting up his hands. His fists are always away and flailing to keep the other boxer watching the course of numerous feints whereas Britton lost foot little motion and worked his left jab more frequently.

LOCAL SQUADS TO FORM LOOP

Court Mentors Confer Friday Evening

Port Arthur after Friday night will have a basketball league all her own. Managers and captains of the various teams have been urged to attend a conference of basketball officials to be held in Franklin gym Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at which time the league will be perfected.

Included in the list of teams which will take part in the conference, and which will likely form the organization, are the following clubs:

Canadians, Casey's, Baptists, Algonquians and Methodists.

Each of the contingents have been showing stellar class in their respective divisions, and while hardly any of the clubs have as yet indicated in regular scheduled classes, they are conditioning for a strenuous local season that promises to make Franklin gym pop with excitement during the year.

The meeting Friday evening is open to only the managers and captains of the various contingents. Others will be permitted to join in the discussions, although they are welcome to attend the meeting, according to the announcement.

New Luminary

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—The newest star among the light heavyweights of the nation is Ad Stone of Philadelphia, a second Dempsey in action. Stone made his debut here recently and gave Mike Burke, local top-notch, a terrific beating. Stone all but knocked Burke out in the third with a right-hand punch.

STOPS NELSON

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 12.—A. D. Stone, Philadelphia's hope for the light-heavyweight title, stopped Tommy Nelson, former navy boxer in the first round of a scheduled ten round bout. Stone flattened Nelson four times in less than 2 minutes. The Navyman's seconds tossed in the sponge.

DOWNEY BEATS HIRSCH

GREB RENEWS AGED CHARGES

Howls "Frame-Up" Hours After Battle Ends

By United News. NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Harry Greb, the Pittsburgh light-heavyweight fighter, was the center of another stir in the boxing business Tuesday when he was quoted as complaining that he was "framed" to lose the decision in his fight with Gene Tunney of New York Monday night.

Greb, who holds the middleweight championship of the world, was boxing Tunney for the American light-heavyweight championship, which he formerly held. He lost the decision and the crowd booed the verdict of the judges and referee.

This is the second time in a year that Greb has figured in such a row with the boxing powers. After his second fight with Tunney, last spring, he told a Pittsburgh sport writer that an attempt had been made to shake him down for several thousand dollars for the "sporting writers" of New York. When a demand was made that he name the writers who had approached him, he repudiated the charges.

William J. McCormick, chairman of the boxing commission, said he did not believe Greb would make formal charges against the officials of the fight. Charles F. Mathison and Frank Madden, judges, and Lou Magnolia, referee. Neither did he expect to take any action against Greb for his alleged utterances.

The majority of the New York boxing critics thought Tunney won the fight. Greb had not received his money late Monday afternoon.

CASEYS CLASH WITH CANUCKS

Fast Session Promised in Franklin Tonight

Tonight at 7:30 o'clock, in Franklin Gym, the Canadian Club and the Casey's angle up in a finish basketball bill, the game being open to the general public.

Both clubs are snappy, and have been showing considerable form during their training periods at the gym. Announcements made this morning by the Casey's indicated their lineup will be chosen from the following: Captain Despit, Kent, Murphy, Carroll, Provost, Stanberry, John, Fred, Moran. The crew is being coached by Scully.

CANTON, O., Dec. 12.—Anthony Downey, middleweight of Cincinnati, and Harry Fay, McKeesport, Pa., boxed 10 rounds to a draw.

Tilden's Record

Would Bill Tilden be asked by America if he withdrew from the Davis cup play?

Would Niagara win the fall. Both his home-run bat, Gull-Curl, his voice, Broadway, his bright light?

Tilden has been a member of the American defending team for four years and in that length of time he has won or helped to win 15 matches and lost only one.

Here's the record: 1920—Preliminary Round—Tilden defeated William H. Lawrence of France; Tilden and W. M. Johnston defeated Laurence and Andre H. Gobert, France.

Semi-final—Tilden defeated A. B. F. Kingscott and J. C. Parke, British Isles; Tilden and Johnston defeated Kingscott and Parke, British Isles.

Challenge Round—Tilden defeated Norman E. Brookes and Gerald L. Patterson, Australia; Tilden and Johnston defeated Brookes and Patterson, Australia.

1921—Challenge Round—Tilden defeated Zeno Shimizu and I. Kinsamori, Japan.

1922—Challenge Round—Tilden defeated Patterson and James O. Anderson, Australia; Tilden and Richards lost to Patterson and O'Hara Wood.

1923—Tilden defeated Anderson and John B. Hawkes, Australia; Tilden and Williams defeated Anderson and Hawkes.

BASEBALL CONFERENCE IN ITS FINAL STAGES

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—With the Pacific Coast League presidency squabble out of the way, the annual meeting of the big and little leagues of baseball swung into its final and major phase today.

As the American and National Leagues went into joint session it was a question whether the fight on Judge C. M. Landis, commissioner of baseball, could bear fruit. Landis had the comfort of knowing that the National League is with him because last evening the club owners of the senior circuit adopted a resolution commending him for his "conscientious devotion to duty."

FOOTBALL COACH HAS TOUGH JOB

Rockne Says Task Lies in "Delivering"

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 12.—"Coaching a football team is an even more precarious position than managing a big league ball club," says Knute Rockne of Notre Dame.

"You must deliver every week. One bad year and the old grade after yelling for your dismissal. Few of the game's greatest coaches have failed to be under fire at some time.

"Incidentally, competition is so keen that a coach can never figure on any game as soft picking. The season is replete with upsets.

"If you new stadiums are mighty fine, but they simply add to the worries of a coach. Let me explain. Some of the stadiums cost as much as $200,000. Forgetting football for a minute and taking up frozen finance, it is easy to figure that a team must take in about $100,000 profit before it pays the interest on the investment.

"For a coach to turn out a bad team with a stadium to worry about as well as the players, makes the job all the harder. In football the fans like a winner as in baseball, and a poor team puts an awful dent in the receipts."

TWO DATES OPEN
